

President's Corner

By Lioness Marge Howard, LOW Lioness President

We blame in others only the faults by which we do not profit.— Alexander Dumas

Happy New Year everyone. I hope 2011 will not be a duplicate of 2010. Falling snow is pretty, but a little would be just fine. I have gotten out my boots, hats, scarves, and gloves, but I hope I will not have to use them very much. I purchased a new coat for Isabelle (dog). She does not want to stay outside very long, but seems to like the snow.

The Fire and Rescue dinner we hosted for the volunteers was well attended.

We had a most successful Holiday House Tour on December 11th. The weather was delightful, and it was pleasant taking our little walk to each of the very beautifully decorated homes. A big "Thank You" to Lioness Chris Wyant, Committee Chair, and her many volunteers who worked long hours to make this a successful project.

Our Lioness dinner meeting held on December 9th was a musical program. We sang Christmas songs along with Erin and Dave Schafferman who sing at the LOW Church. The Twelve Days of Christmas led by Erin was a lot of fun to do. (We must do this again next year).

Looking forward to seeing you all at our next meeting in February.

May the tide of fortune float us into the harbor of content. Author unknown

SHARE AND CARE

By Lioness Jean Stutz

Lioness Sallie Good would like to express her appreciation to all for their many kindnesses. She is feeling well and will follow up with her physicians to determine the course of treatment after a double mastectomy

Lioness Virginia Bayer's medical problems continue; however, her outlook on life and positive attitude continues.

Lioness Linda Fisher-Kavanagh continues to progress at home after a serious fall.

I have no further information on Lioness Peggy Dowd as of this writing.

Please remember, in your thoughts and prayers, these Lionesses and others who are ill, recovering, or grieving the loss of a loved one.

HOLIDAY HOUSE TOUR

By Lioness Chris Wyant

The 2010 Holiday House Tour was a great success! With the sale of 242 tickets, we were able to realize a net income of $2,281 after expenses. We received rave reviews from all five homeowners thanks to the creativity and special efforts of Jeannie Dietz, Beth Sundberg, Michelle Senft, Donna Crawley, and Christine Getty.

A big thank you to everyone involved especially our wonderful hostesses, cookie bakers, church helpers, and parking attendants.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY LIONESSES
